Which aspects of point of view appear?
A gap between the two marks is worth discussing; "point of view" in general is common in both
Point of view in general
Grammatical person (first / third ...)
Narrator knowledge (omniscient, limited, focalization)
Thought representation (interior monologue ...)
Access to a character's mind
Narrator involvement and voice
Multiple viewpoints and switching
Narrator reliability
Objective / camera mode
Distance and depth (close third, deep POV)
Narrator role (witness, protagonist ...)
Information control (who knows what)
Fiction-writing manuals (n = 279)
Contrast (narratology / academic) (n = 32)
0
20
40
60
80
100
Share of books with at least one term of this kind (%)
line = uncertainty from the number of books